

Chanel Durante

CHANEL DURANTE is an Italian contemporary painter whose practice explores atmosphere, emotional landscapes, and states of transition through layered, intuitive abstraction. Working between Italy and Australia, her paintings focus on colour as presence rather than description, evoking inner landscapes shaped by movement and change. She has exhibited in Australia, including The Other Art Fair (Sydney, 2022), and has participated in The Affordable Art Fair in Sydney and Melbourne. In 2023, The Design Files named her one of the artists to watch at the Melbourne fair. Her work has also been featured in House & Garden and Home Beautiful Australia.

A woman with dark, curly hair is shown in profile, looking down at a canvas. She is wearing a white tank top. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The lighting is soft and focused on the woman and the canvas.

"My practice explores emotional landscapes through layered, intuitive painting. I am interested in states of transition, moments when certainty dissolves and something new begins to take form. Each work begins from an inner sensation rather than a fixed image. Through layering, removing, and rebuilding, the surface becomes a space that holds time, hesitation, and movement. The painting evolves as a process of listening. Landscape, in my work, is not a specific place but an interior condition. Light, shadow, and colour function as emotional registers rather than descriptive elements. I see each canvas as a threshold, a suspended space where stillness and change coexist. The work does not aim to represent, but to evoke presence."
